FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 29, 2016 (Beaverton, Ontario): The Canadian Council of RN Regulators (CCRNR) is pleased to announce the election of its Officers for two-year terms (2016-2018):

President: Cynthia Johansen
Registrar/CEO of the College of Registered Nurses of British Columbia

Vice-President: Lynn Power
Executive Director of the Association of Registered Nurses of Newfoundland and Labrador

The Board of Directors unanimously approved the election of its new Officers at its meeting on September 27, 2016. Also during that meeting, past President Anne Coghlan expressed heartfelt sentiments as she chaired her final Board meeting, stating, "It has been an honour. CCRNR has been through an enormous amount of change and it should be proud of its accomplishments." Anne also thanked Cynthia for her support and for being a visionary leader as she served as Vice-President since May 2015.

"Anne Coghlan's leadership and strength was paramount to the success that CCRNR has experienced and the growth of the organization since its inception, with formal incorporation in 2012", said new President Cynthia Johansen. "Anne was instrumental in forwarding the mandate of CCRNR and making CCRNR known in the regulatory community – in provinces/territories, across Canada, and around the world."

The Canadian Council of Registered Nurse Regulators (CCRNR) CCRNR, formed in 2011 to promote excellence in professional nursing regulation, is an organization made up of representatives from Canada's 12 provincial/territorial bodies that regulate the practice of registered nurses. CCRNR serves as a national forum for interprovincial/territorial, national, and global regulatory matters for nursing regulation.
